

With this itinerary, you can take your very own Stranger Things road trip to see many of the filming locations in real life!

Find more itineraries, movie and TV filming locations, and travel ideas at <https://TheTVTraveler.com>

Stranger Things Road Trip – North Atlanta

Total drive time Douglasville to Stone Mountain Park = 1 hr 10 mins.

Arcade: 6501 Church Street, Douglasville, GA

The arcade where the boys play Dig-Dug and Billy drops off "Mad Max" in Season 2. This stop is really fun because the building is still painted to look like the arcade.

Hawkins Police Station: 8485 Courthouse Square West, Douglasville, GA

Half a mile down the road from the arcade location is the Hawkins Police Station. There is now a blue awning that is not seen in the show, but look closely and you can see the circular outline where the "City of Hawkins" Police Department seal was on this building.

Hawkins National Laboratory: 1256 Briarcliff Road, Atlanta

This is Hawkins Lab where Eleven was kept prisoner and where the demo-dogs attacked poor Bob. In real life this is a research facility at Emory University's Briarcliff Campus. When we visited in early January it was completely deserted, but it could be in use or have limited access during the school year. We were not able to get inside, but I've read that the interior scenes were filmed in a studio.

Van flip: 3782 Sarahs Lane, Tucker, GA

This is the street where Eleven caused the van to flip over the guys on their bikes. The flip happened between house #3782 and #3788. We got extremely lucky when we visited this street because a homeowner was outside grilling in his driveway and he came to talk to us. He had actual footage of the van flip being filmed from his front yard – including a failed version that he showed us!

The Woods/Train Tracks: Stone Mountain Park, 5536 E Mountain St, Stone Mountain, GA

There are many entrances to Stone Mountain Park. Point your GPS to 5536 E Mountain St, Stone Mountain, GA and then look for a park entrance. (If that address doesn't work, try 1000 Robert E Lee Blvd, Stone Mountain, GA.) There is $15 entrance fee at the booth, then turn right and head to the Confederate Hall Parking Lot.

You'll see a bathroom behind the parking lot and the train tracks are right behind that. There's no way to tell exactly where they filmed the scenes with Dustin & Steve or the boys walking on the tracks, but several scenes were filmed there as well as in the woods nearby. And when you're done taking fun photos, Stone Mountain Park is an awesome place to enjoy for the rest of the day!

Stranger Things Road Trip – South Atlanta

Total drive time East Point to Jackson = 50 minutes.

A few 80s-looking homes in East Point, GA served as the neighborhood where the Stranger Things kids lived. You can take photos from the street, but please be respectful and do not go on their property! Note that Piney Wood LANE and Piney Wood DRIVE are two different streets, but are right next to each other.

- Mike & Nancy Wheeler's House: 2530 Piney Wood Lane
- Lucas Sinclair's House: 2550 Piney Wood Lane
- Dustin Henderson's House: 2886 Piney Wood Drive
- Barb Holland's House: 2980 Piney Wood Drive

Hawkins Public Library (interior), 2777 McGee Way, East Point

This is a real library and Hopper filmed a scene inside, but it was closed for renovations when we visited.

Hideaway Restaurant: 112 N. Berry St. Stockbridge, GA

This is where Hopper confronts Trooper O'Bannon about finding Will's body in the lake. In real life it's a pool hall called "Smokin' Cues." It looks kinda sketchy and I didn't feel comfortable going in with my daughter.

Hawkins School: 109 South Lee Street, Stockbridge, GA

This is another awesome stop because it still says "Hawkins Middle School" on the building. It's an actual (unused) school and you can walk all around and peek in the windows.

The small town of Jackson, GA served as the setting for downtown Hawkins in Stranger Things. There are several filming locations you can visit and get great photos!

Hawkins Cinema: Corner of 2nd Street and North Oak Street, Jackson, GA

It's a restaurant, but just add a marquee and you'll have the movie theater where Steve's "friends" Tommy & Carol spray painted "Nancy 'the slut' Wheeler."

Hawkins Public Library (exterior): Butts County Probate Court, Jackson

The court building is literally the center of town - you can't miss it. The entrance on 2nd Street is where you'll recognize the steps Hopper ran up to go into the library.

Melvald's General Store: 4 2nd Street, Jackson

The site of the store where Joyce worked. The store is closed and mostly empty, but you can look in the windows and see the cash register and checkout counter where Joyce bought the telephones and Christmas lights.

The Alley: between West 2nd Street and West 3rd Street, Jackson

It's just an alley, but it's where they filmed Steve and Jonathan's fight.

Before you leave Jackson, stop in to Lucy Lu's Coffee Cafe and get one of their Stranger Things-inspired drinks! The Upside Down was my choice!

Extra Stranger Things Filming Locations

These locations are a bit more out of the way, and not on the path of the itinerary above. But if you are visiting filming locations from The Walking Dead or The Vampire Diaries, these are closer to some of those locations.

Bradley's Big Buy: 504 Center Street, Palmetto, GA

This Piggly Wiggly Express is where Eleven stole all the Eggo's. We bought ours. It's not far out of your way if you're going to Senoia, GA for a Walking Dead locations.

Oscar's Gas & Go: 7705 Covington Hwy, Lithonia, GA

This is the convenience store where Kali, Eleven, and the gang steal supplies in season two. It's called Ravi's Food Mart and looks really run down and sketchy. We did a drive-by and took a quick photo. Lithonia is near Covington, aka Mystic Falls if you're a Vampire Diaries fan.

Note: This itinerary is current as of February 2018. It's possible that any property mentioned could get painted, sold, or closed to the public at any time. The TV Traveler makes no representations or guarantees about any of these locations. Visit at your own risk.

Copyright 2018 Shannon Entin. The TV Traveler, <https://thetvtraveler.com>